

Discrimination is Against the Law

JASA complies with applicable Federal civil rights laws and does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

JASA does not exclude people or treat them differently because of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex.

JASA:

- Provides free aids and services to people with disabilities to communicate effectively with us, such as:

- Qualified sign language interpreters
 - Written information in other formats (large print, audio, accessible electronic formats, other formats)

- Provides free language services to people whose primary language is not English, such as:

- Qualified interpreters

- Information written in other languages If you need these services, contact JASA's Compliance Officer 212-273-5296 If you believe that JASA has failed to provide these services or discriminated in another way on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, or sex, you can file a grievance with:
